

Fishing Terms & Conditions

Validity

Seasonal permits valid: from 1st February until 31st December.

Daily permits only valid for date noted on permit.

Fishing on Llangorse Lake is subject to the Fishing Rules obtainable on our website.

All permit holders must hold a valid National Rod License before fishing at Llangorse Lake.

All fish must be returned to the lake.

Accurate and regular catch returns must be completed at the end of each days fishing. Catch return cards are available free of charge from Bristol Water fisheries staff. Catch returns must be handed to a member of staff, dropped in a permit box or emailed to reception@llangorselake.co.uk after each visit.

Fishing Times and Fishing behaviour

Anglers may not access the lake until one hour after sunrise and must return from fishing one hour before sunset. Or between 6:00 AM and 9:00 PM whichever is the lesser.

Anglers must be respectful of other lake users at all times when on company property.

Permit holders are responsible for their own personal safety when on company property.

The fishing rules must be followed at all times.

Safety

You are responsible for your own safety when angling on Llangorse Lake. Any safety measures taken by Llangorse Caravan Park Ltd do not relieve you of this responsibility. Fishing and using a boat you do at your own risk.

For your safety, Llangorse Caravan Park Ltd requires the use of buoyancy aids or life jackets at all times.

No more than the maximum number of people stated on the booking or stamped on the boat (which ever is lesser) may use the boat at the same time. The boats weight limit must not be exceeded.

Standing and moving around the boat must be limited and only when required. Only one person should be standing at one time.

When hiring or using your own watercraft please be aware of your own limitations and the prevailing weather conditions. Boating should only take place where customers feel confident in the weather conditions and are aware that safety cover is not available, recovery is available but should be avoided by ensuring proper maintenance and weather attention. All water activities can be potentially hazardous and are undertaken at your own risk. It is not advised to go out on the lake in strong winds. It is not permitted to access the lake under the influence of alcohol. If we have deemed the weather conditions to poor for lake use access to the lake will not be granted.

Liability

Anglers should comply with the safety advice set out above at all times when on Llangorse Lake. Failure to do so may result in death or serious injury.

Llangorse Caravan Park Ltd will not be liable for any death or personal injury resulting from the failure of Anglers to abide by the safety rules or other unsafe behaviour by anglers.
